Did You Know?

There is even more to our site behind the login!

Anyone at a member firm can create a profile on the website to gain access.

Did you know anyone in your firm can create a members-only profile on the WLG website?

Download the ad above to share internally or on your firm's intranet. Be sure to share the quick PDF below or this email with everyone in your firm. By creating a profile on the WLG website you gain access to members-only content including:

- event information and registration;
- enhanced firm directory features (search all firm contacts by practice area and role);
- access to Knowledge Center resources including legal updates, firm news and past event materials and presentations; and
- the ability to join and view all content (member lists, relevant articles and events, etc.) specific to our Practice & Industry Groups.

1. Navigate to theworldlawgroup.com.

2. Click “Sign up/Log in”.

3. Under the “Not a Registered User Yet?” section enter your firm-provided email and choose a password.

4. Navigate to your firm-provided email inbox and follow the instructions provided in the Activate Your Account Email.

5. Re-enter your password and edit your profile and preferences to select your practice and industry areas. Please upload your photo too as these appear on group membership lists and event directories.

Contact Tori Drayer with any questions on setting up your profile.
